Prompts: President Dallin H. Oaks once told of meeting a woman who had not attended church in years. President Oaks encouraged this woman to think of all the Savior had done for her. She replied, "What's He done for me?" Share your testimony of the Savior by responding to this woman in the space below using text, audio, or video.

Reflection

Sometimes pain and tribulations blind us, and we don't see the Savior's hand in our lives because we want things to happen on our timeline and not on our Heavenly Father's timeline, when in reality He is polishing that rough diamond.

The Lord paid for our tribulations, pains, and illnesses... We only have to place our complete trust in Him.

Jesus Christ knows our suffering and is always by our side, even though at times we don't see Him, like the story of footprints in the sand; He simply carries us in His arms. And most importantly, He dries our tears.

I know that Jesus Christ lives, that He loves us, and that what we go through is because we can bear it.
